All non-members will be made part-time student affiliates at time of registration, this membership will be valid for one year.

All candidates must renew their annual membership subscriptions, at least until they have completed their course and received their course certificates. The CILT(UK) reserves the right to withhold the award of any qualification or the arrangement of exams to candidates:

- Who have not registered within three months of their enrolment at a Registered or Approved Centre
- Who have not been candidates registered with CILT(UK) for the duration of their course of study
- Who are not candidates registered with CILT(UK) at the time of examinations, course completion and course certification

Candidates should ensure that any changes of details are notified to the Institute as soon as possible, by mail or e-mail. This is particularly important in the case of a candidate's address as certificates will be dispatched to the address held on the Institute's registration database. Changes of name should also be notified to the Institute in writing if a certificate is to be awarded with the candidate's new name.

Date Protection Act (DPA) 1998: The above information is required in order to effectively communicate with members, to administer their membership in a proper, timely, cost-effective and secure manner and to fulfil the requirements of the Institute's Articles of Association and Bye-Laws. The Institute is required by the DPA to ensure that such information is accurate and up to date and you are requested to inform the Institute's Membership Services Department of any changes. Should your membership end, your details will be retained for a further 6 years, unless otherwise instructed by you.

In addition to mailings directly associated to your membership, the Institute accepts, from time to time, vetted third-party mailings or emails which we believe may interest you. On such occasions the Institute acts as the mailing facility thereby ensuring the data remains confidential to the Institute. This activity is an important income generator for the Institute and helps keep membership subscriptions to a minimum.

If you DO NOT want us to contact your employer/referee – please tick this box ☐

If you DO NOT wish to receive vetted third-party postal mailings – please tick this box ☒

If you DO wish to receive vetted third-party email messages – please tick this box ☒
